DANCE COMPANY

2025

Christmas Concert

SNOW CANYON
HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Welcome

Welcome to Desert Edge Dance Company's Christmas Dance Concert!

It's amazing to think back to December 2002, when our very first Christmas concert was held in Panorama Elementary's cafeteria. Back then, we were just starting to share the joy of dance and building the foundation for what has turned into a tradition that now spans more than twenty years.

Tonight, our students—ages 3 and up—will take the stage to share their love of dance with family and friends. From beginner to advanced levels, each dancer has worked hard during classes and at home, preparing to leap, turn, and bring extra holiday magic
to the stage.

Thank you for being here to celebrate the season with us and support our dancers. We hope you enjoy this evening.

Concert Etiquette: Ten Rules for an Enjoyable Experience

1. Keep It Quiet: Please remain silent during the performances—our stars are shining!
2. Snack Time Can Wait: Food and drinks aren't allowed in the auditorium.
3. Silence is Golden: Kindly set your phones to silent mode.
4. Hands to Yourself: Save the waves for later to avoid distracting our performers.
5. Stay Seated: Aisles are for sitting, not roaming—cameras, please take a rest.
6. Celebrate Loudly, but at the Right Time: Applause and cheers are encouraged during appropriate moments!
7. Stay for the Magic: Please avoid leaving during the performance and enjoy the entire show.
8. Exit Quietly: Use the back doors if you need to step out.
9. Leave It Clean: Please dispose of trash in the bins provided.
10. Get Ready for an Amazing Show: Our performers are ready to entertain you!
